BISHOP EUSTACE PREPARATORY SCHOOL PARTNERS WITH KING'S COLLEGE

King's College, located in Wilkes-Barre, PA, is a Catholic institution of higher education animated and guided by the Congregation of Holy Cross. King's pursues excellence in teaching, learning, and scholarship through a rigorous core curriculum, major programs across the liberal arts and sciences, nationally accredited professional programs at the undergraduate and graduate levels, and personal attention to student formation in a nurturing community.

King's is excited to offer qualified students Bishop Eustace Preparatory School students an opportunity to attend King's with a substantial tuition benefit that will apply each year for four years assuming a student remains in good standing.

Highlights include:

- Qualifying Bishop Eustace students will receive an annual merit scholarship ranging from $18,000 to $25,000 (up to $72,000 - $100,000 cumulatively over 4 years);
- Qualifying Bishop Eustace students will receive an additional merit-based $1,000 scholarship (up to $4,000 cumulatively over 4 years);
and
- Bishop Eustace students may also qualify for financial need-based scholarship awards. Students and their families must timely complete the FAFSA to qualify for financial need-based awards.

- Criteria:
 - Each student must have a minimum high school cumulative academic GPA of 3.00 to qualify.
 - Each student must be granted admission to the College.
 - Certain academic programs at King's have program-specific admissions criteria, which must be met to earn acceptance into these programs. These academic programs include, but are not limited to:
 - Physician Assistant Studies;
 - Civil Engineering (King's);
 - Mechanical Engineering (King's);
 - 3+2 Engineering (University of Notre Dame);
 - 3+2 Engineering (Washington University); and
 - Nursing.
