Allison Field is nearing completion!

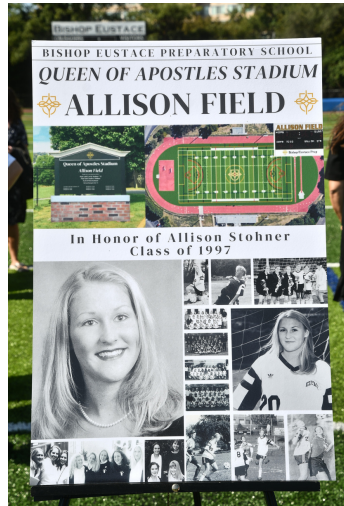

As you may already know, we have been diligently working on the installation of a state-of-the-art turf at Queen of Apostles Stadium. This project has been a labor of love for our community, and we are incredibly proud of the progress we have made thus far.

While we are in the final stages of this project, we are still seeking supporter to help us complete the project. We are seeking donations from individuals and organizations who share our vision of creating a vibrant and inviting campus at Bishop Eustace. Your contribution will help us purchase the necessary materials, complete the installation, and establish a fund for ongoing maintenance and upkeep.

We are committed to recognizing the contributions of our donors and supporters. Donors at different levels will be acknowledged on a prominent donor board at the site, in local publications, and through our social media channels, ensuring that your generosity is widely recognized and appreciated.

Your donation, whether large or small, will play a vital role in completing this project and leaving a lasting legacy in our community. By contributing, you will be helping us create a beautiful and functional space that brings our community together for generations to come. Thank you to the following families that will be featured on our donor wall:

Matt and Carrie Stohner '95
 Paul and Andrea Stohner
 Radwell International
 Michael ByungJu Kim '81
 Lorraine and Jim Cucinotta '67
 Sean McMenamin'96 and Bria McMenamin '98

Help us bring the next generation of Crusaders to campus!

We will host our annual Fall open house on Sunday, October 15th from 11:00 am to 2:00 pm. Future Crusaders will have the chance to tour our campus, meet the faculty and staff who guide our students to achievement, and discover an environment that fosters inner strength. Please encourage the next generation of Crusaders to register today!

Students can also schedule a visit in our Crusader for a Day program. A student-centered event where a visiting 7th or 8th grader experiences real classes, meets mentors and sees what makes Bishop Eustace a school like none other. It's a focused, one-on-one opportunity for any young man or woman to live a day in the life of a Crusader – and decide if Eustace is the right choice.
